DR. GARDNER'S EXCELSIOR.

SULLIVAN COLT IS FORTUNATE IN AVOIDING INTERFERENCE.

Much Crowding and Jamming in Jamaica's Feature Race—Tremendous Crowd at the Tight Little Course—Windy Day.

New York, April 26.—Dr. Gardner, unbacked by his connections because of his indifferent showing at Aqueduct Tuesday, won the Excelsior Handicap at Jamaica this afternoon in runaway style, with Glorifier, the Carter Handicap winner, second, and Cairngorm third. Dr. Gardner had the speed to carry him into an early lead and was fortunate in drawing an outside position, as he was thus enabled to utilize this speed and escape the general mix-up on the first turn; and once in front none of the others ever looked like overtaking him.

For bumping, crowding and general interference, the race was one of the worst ever seen. At least a half dozen horses had no chance after the interference they met and the absolute inadequacy of the saucer-like Jamaica course to present day racing was never more thoroughly demonstrated. King's Daughter, which was backed into equal favoritism with W. H. Carey, was almost thrown down directly after the start. Good Luck was put on the fence on the first turn and again on the backstretch. Samuel H. Harris, Oxford and others were served equally as bad at different stages of the race.

W. H. Carey and Philander broke slowly and were still slower in getting into a racing stride and had to work their way around on the outside, which put them at a decided disadvantage. While this was happening, Dr. Gardner was sailing along in front free from all interference and skillfully handled by Jack Martin. On the turn for home he had the contenders beaten to a standstill and won easily enough from Glorifier and Cairngorm, both of which came from some distance back in the last three furlongs.

It would be ill advised to say that Dr. Gardner was not the best horse, but there would surely have been a different sort of a contest had the race been run over a course like that at Aqueduct or Belmont Park, and it is more than probable that there would have been a different result, at least so far as the placed horses were concerned.

The claim that the course would not suit W. H. Carey, especially when the field was a large one, was well borne out by the running and forecasted by the betting, the odds going from 5 to 2 to 7 to 2. Philander ran a remarkable race. In the run through the backstretch he was a bad last, but he finished with a rush that indicates he should go the handicap route with the best of them. King's Daughter, after the early trouble which came to her, got through to run into second position on the backstretch, but retired at seven furlongs.

The track was fast, but a high wind swept over the course which partially accounts for the slow time made. The Sullivan-Johnson-Farrell confederacy had little faith in Dr. Gardner's ability to win in the race, notwithstanding he had worked well since his defeat by Athlete at Aqueduct. Mr. Johnson put a small bet on him and Mr. Sullivan possibly backed him lightly, but the Sullivan crowd generally went to Samuel H. Harris and backed him from 50 to 15 to 1.

The attendance was a record for the Jamaica course, the field enclosure being so densely packed that all sorts of temporary arrangements had to be made for the accommodation of the crowd. The day was bright, but a hard wind which swept up from the bay blew into the club house and grandstand, making it most uncomfortable.

The racing aside from the big event was noted mostly for the defeat of Gold Heart in the closing race. Touted for one of the best two-year-olds of the year, Senator McCarren's colt was backed for thousands at even money. He had worked fast and his trainer believed that he could run the five furlongs in one minute, but after being knocked back at the post he showed little speed and was unplaced at the end.

Jockey Bullman, who was recently granted a license, had the mount on Good Luck, but earned a suspension for the meeting by his over-anxiety while at the post. Jockey McDaniel has signed a contract with J. E. Seagram for the season.

With the Elmhurst Stakes for two-year-olds and the Paumonok Handicap to be decided tomorrow and such good racers as Keator, Tony Bonero, Golden Shore, Orbicular, Cressina, Tartan, Rustle, Masks and Faces, Blue Heron, Oraculum, Superman, Handzarra, Marathon, Jack McKeon, Gilpin, Senator Beckham, Sepoy and Rosario among those likely to start the usual big Saturday crowd will be in evidence.

LEXINGTON MEETING OPENS TODAY.

Good Card—Five Kentucky Derby Candidates in Third Race—Much Local Interest.

Lexington, Ky., April 26.—The spring meeting of the Kentucky Association begins tomorrow and conditions are flattering. There is a better lot of horses here this spring than in years past and the fact that all six of the races have attracted large fields shows that a majority of the horses here are fit and ready to race. The card for the opening day is attractive enough to warrant the assertion that some good sport is in store for Lexington racegoers. There is a lot of local interest in the meeting. All the boxes have been spoken for and all that is necessary to make the opening an auspicious one is fine weather. Colonel Matt J. Winn and Judge Charles Price arrived from Louisville this afternoon, while starter Jake Holtman is expected in tonight. All the other officials are on the ground. Judge Price will be assisted in the stand by J. N. Camden, Jr., and W. R. Letcher, while William Shelly will act as starting judge besides filling the position of entry clerk and clerk of the scales. Special trains will come from Louisville and Cincinnati tomorrow.

W. Gerst and George Holle have wired that they will be on hand to see Zal, their Kentucky Derby candidate, run, and ex-Mayor Charles Grainger will head the delegation that will come from Louisville. In addition to Zal there are four Kentucky Derby eligibles named to go in the third race—Ovelando, Boxara, Flensing and Harold D.—and the result of this race will give the public something of a line on their chances for the big race at Louisville a week from Monday.

C. E. Rowe got in this morning from New Orleans to look over First Mason and Allowmaise. The former is being handled by Howard Oots, while John Hall is looking after Allowmaise. If these two horses show good form they will be shipped east, otherwise they will remain in the west.

Among the riders here are: Minder, G. Swain, J. Lee, Foy, Beauchamp, D. Boland and D. Austin. Lee has been engaged to ride Goldproof in the inaugural dash tomorrow.

F. W. Torreyson's filly Agra died after being unloaded from the cars at Louisville a few days ago. The filly developed fever and was in a bad way when she was unloaded.

J. G. Brown's Goldzone took sick after the City Park meeting closed and died.

The fact that such tried performers as Goldproof, Mike Sutton, Morales, Merrywater, Black Mary, Ancient, Ovelando, Zal, Boxara, Camille, Black Fox, Red Ogden, Colonel Bob, Great Pirate, Honest, St. Noel, Oberon and Request are in the big entry lists, seems to assure high class racing.

T. K. Lynch.

ABOUT THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Among the youngsters carded at Jamaica to begin their racing careers this afternoon is the first to carry the colors of Barney Schreiber in the east this year. She is Minnie G., by Sain—Miss Marion, therefore a full sister to Woodlands and Tom McGrath and a half sister to Joe Carey. Miss Marion, by Hinyar out of the English mare Astolat by Kisber, was a speedy racer and a decidedly profitable investment for Mr. Schreiber. He got her as a yearling for $235 and she gave him a big return on his money by winning her very first start, the Debutante Stakes at St. Louis in 1898. This filly Minnie G. is reported to have worked faster than any of her age at Woodlands Farm in Missouri, where she was bred, foaled and trained until she was sent to Hot Springs to trainer Brandt early in the year. Her preparation at Oaklawn was impressive and it should not be surprising if she emulates her dam by winning her first race.

Woodlane, by Octagon—Woodvine, was bred by August Belmont at Nursery Stud in Kentucky and was sold to Robert Tucker for $750. She is a full sister to Woodwitch and Woodsaw and half sister to Woolwich, Woodspring and Woodspeike.

Complete, by Compute—Reginella, was bred by H. T. Oxnard at Blue Ridge Stud in Virginia and was sold to W. O. Scully for the Palestine Stable for $200. Reginella is by Melton and was foaled in Italy in 1895, her dam being the Italian mare Regina. Reginella was taken from Italy to England in 1901 and the following spring foaled Sugar Trust by Melanion, with which she had been mated in Italy. In the spring of 1902 Reginella was covered by Baloli and with her foal (Sugar Trust) was brought to this country. Her produce as the result of the mating with Baloli was Miss Freda and in 1904 she dropped Piedmont Belle by Knight of the Thistle. Piedmont Belle started once last year and was unplaced.

Givonn Raggio, by Diendonno—Thorn Blossom, was bred by J. B. Haggin at Elmendorf Stud in Kentucky and was sold to M. L. Hayman for $1,600. Thorn Blossom was a winner and is the dam of Wild Blossom. She is a half sister to Pompadour, dam of Telephone. Good reports have been heard of Givonn Raggio. He is said to be an unusually speedy colt.

McGregor, by Oddfellow—Per Contra, was bred by Chinn & Forsythe at their farm near Harrodsburg, Ky., and will make his first start in the colors of Fred Forsythe. He is a half brother to Good Bye and Per Centum.

The solitary debutante at Pimlico today is Miss Catesby, by Star Shoot—Jessie Boswell. Miss Catesby was bred by Messrs. Catesby Woodford and A. B. Croxton at Paris, Ky., and was sold to M. J. Thompson for $100. She is a half sister to Heidelberg, Stella Elchberg and Annie Handy.

Seventeen youngsters are coming out for the first time at Lexington today—nine fillies in the second race and eight colts and geldings in the fifth race. Lady Handsel, by Handsel—Azile, was bred by T. B. Jones at Cavendish Stud and was sold to Allan Steele for $110. She is a half sister to Azele, which ran twenty-nine times as a two-year-old last year and managed to finish third once.

Merry Blue, by Blues—Merry Merrick, was bred at J. V. Sapp's Sunny Slope Stud and was sold to A. L. Darnaby for $400.

Pantops, by G. W. Johnson—Brussels, was bred by W. D. Moore, Danville, Ky., and was sold privately to W. A. Smith. She is a half sister to Liphardt, which ran nine times last year without being in the money.

Della, by Maddison—Coralie, was bred by Mrs. John M. Clay. This filly is a half sister to Tettrix. Ancient, by Cesarion—Grandma II., was bred by Milton Young at McGrathiana Stud and was sold privately to Colby Karr. She is a half-sister to Antique and Amy Riley, but that is no recommendation.

Merrywater, by Bridgewater—Miss Mary, by Mr.

Pickwick, was bred and is owned by Woodford Clay. She is a half-sister to Marriage Bells, Mary Thrift, Milcah and Maribert.

Lady Sichel, by Gallantry—Enough, was bred by Milton Young and was sold privately to William Gerst. She is a half-sister to Suffice and Karama.

Skyo, by Goldcrest—Visma, was bred by the late Major B. G. Thomas and was sold by his estate last fall to Grover Hughes for $100. Skyo is the third foal of his dam, the first being Long Dan, which did not call for much. The second was bought by the Breeders' Protective Association and retired.

Alma's Best, by Handsel—Alma K., was bred by Stevens & Winn, at Winchester, Ky., and is a half-sister to St. Benedict and Charles Weber.

Broncho Bill, by Algol—Rachel Ray, was bred by R. K. Lewis at Lexington, Ky., and is being trained by W. A. Smith under an arrangement.

Richmond Duke, by Russell—Richmond Hill, was bred by O. H. Chenault and passed to J. Williams. He is a full brother to Russell Hill.

Marcus Aurelius, by Goldcrest—Tenchetah, was bred by the late Major B. G. Thomas and passed to John Clay, who formerly trained for Major Thomas. This colt is a full brother to Golden Honors and a half-brother to Tendril.

Honest, by Sorcerer—Priceless, is a half-brother to Principia, Prickly and Jasper, all by Hastings. Honest was bred by Milton Young and passed to Colby Karr.

R. C. Rann, by Laetantius—Cherry Button, in the stable of J. C. Millam, was bred in England, but was foaled in this country. He was imported in 1904 by Douglas H. Grand. He is said to be very speedy and it is reported that in a trial against Sir Navarre at Memphis about ten days ago he beat the brother in blood to Salvidere so easily that C. R. Ellison had a bad hour afterward. Ellison paid $9,000 for Sir Navarre last fall. This is the colt he wanted to name Governor Hughes.

Cymbal, by Galashiels—Sounding Brass, in the stable of William Gerst, is another that was bred in England and foaled in this country. Sounding Brass was brought over in 1904 with a foal at foot by Loved One, which was named Tinkler, but which has not started. O. H. Chenault bought Sounding Brass from Douglas H. Grand and in the spring of 1905 she foaled Cymbal at Spendthrift Stud. She is the dam of Venetian Bell, a winner in England.

John Marrs, by Jack Point—Lizzie Gilman, was bred and is owned by Lee Smitha, of Richmond, Ky. This colt is a half-brother to Fred Reka.

Gilvedear, by Giganteum—Sea Puss, came pretty near going to Mexico. He was bred at Rancocas Stud in New Jersey and was offered for sale with the consignment of yearlings from that farm at Sheephead Bay last July, but nobody wanted him. He was passed out without a bid. He went back to the farm and in November was shipped down to Lexington and put in the sale at Horsemen's Headquarters. L. Blum, who had come from Mexico to buy thoroughbreds for the improvement of the breed of horses in his country, got him for $75. Allan Steele a day or two later, in looking over the big lot of horses Blum had bought, took a fancy to this colt and persuaded Blum to let him have him at a profit. His dam, Sea Puss, is by Greenland, winner of the Metropolitan Handicap, and a half-brother to Luke Blackburn.

For the greater part these two-year-olds are culls, but there may be some surprisingly good race horses among them. Many a cull has outshone his more expensive stable mates in performances and earnings.

PREEN'S CONSISTENT PERFORMANCE.

Equals a Pimlico Track Record Which He Made Exactly One Year Before.

Baltimore, Md., April 26.—Just one year ago today Preen, carrying 114 pounds, set a record for the three-quarters over the Pimlico track at 1:13 3-4. Today, carrying 117 pounds, he equalled that record. The track was lightning fast up to the fourth race, when a heavy shower fell, rendering the going a trifle sticky for the remainder of the afternoon.

A close finish in the third race, the Driving Park Handicap, made matters interesting. Graziallo set a warm pace in this, but a few strides from the wire the red rogue tired and The Clown just got up to beat him out by a nose.

On the whole the racing was interesting and profitable to the public. The Clown and St. Joseph being heavily supported. Flavigny's failure in the last race, however, permitted the bookmakers to recoup some of their losses.

W. B. Jennings was a visitor at the track this afternoon. Jule Garson left for New York today. Seven races are down for decision tomorrow afternoon and since all are filled well and Etta Louise, Giles, Servile, Grafton, St. Jeanne, Sprigtail, Bel-demo, Cousin Kate, Belle Strome, Essex II., Telfare, Guardian, The Cricket, Quadrille, Bulwark, Water Dog, Percentage, Sandy Creeker, Canvas, Allonby and Dainty Maudie are among the entries good racing seems assured.

J. H. Anderson.

THE PICKET IS SOUND.

"Much interest was centered in the appearance of The Picket in the second race at Aqueduct Wednesday," says the New York Sun. "The Waldeck Stable sold the old Falsetto horse last year to Billy Lakeland, as he was a confirmed cripple. Lakeland turned him out and during the winter he put the horse under a course of treatment that sent him to the post yesterday as sound as a gold dollar. The Picket was high in flesh, yet he ran a good game race and pulled up in fine condition. Lakeland feels sure that he can win some races with him in the near future."

FULL BROTHER TO HERMIS.

Lexington, Ky., April 26.—At the Meadows Stud today, Katy of the West foaled a full brother to Hermis, it being a chestnut colt by Hermence.

BAD START BRINGS A HOWL.

DWYER PRESENTS TURNOVER WITH FIRST RACE AT OAKLAND.

Abbey Makes a Grand Effort to Get Up—Paddy Lynch and Aaron J. Successful Favorites.

Oakland, Cal., April 26.—The big crowd of racegoers at Oakland today howled with disgust when Starter Dwyer presented the first race to Turnover, one of the outsiders in the betting. Dwyer sent her away with a five-lengths advantage. The favorite, Abbey, backed for thousands of dollars, was virtually left at the post, as far as winning was concerned, and could never get up in a dazzling effort. The entire field, except the winner, was inextricably tangled up from the beginning.

Two lukewarm favorites, Paddy Lynch and Aaron J., were successful. Outsiders accounted for the remainder of the card. Nabonassar was another red hot favorite whose chances of winning were eliminated at the start and Milshora in the last suffered in the same respect.

Willie Knapp, who will ride on the New York tracks during the summer, is on his way east. A. Koenigsberger has sold Lazell to Milt Kline for $800. The victory of the horse yesterday came rather as a surprise to stable connections.

A decidedly improved card is offered for tomorrow and with such fast ones as Follie L., College Widow, Creston, Byronerdale, Nine Spot, Elevation, Royal Rogue, Nonie Lucille, Gypsy King, Sanfara, Lisaro, F. Neugent, Gossiper II., Nappa, Pal, Kokomo, Bedford and Toupee in evidence in the entry lists some rattling good racing is in store for the patrons of Oakland.

H. Forsland.

CHANGE IN HANDICAP CONDITIONS.

Entrance Fee to Overnight Races Will Be Play or Pay at Belmont Park.

New York, April 26.—New conditions will govern the overnight handicaps at the spring meeting of the Westchester Racing Association, and the system will in all probability be extended to the meetings which follow at other tracks. The conditions make the entry fee of any horse for an overnight handicap play or pay, and no provision is made for a declaration, as has been the custom in the past. It has been customary to charge an entrance fee of $10, or only $5 if declared on the publication of the weights. But in future the entrance fee of $10 will be charged whether the horse starts or not, and withdrawals will be made the same as to an overnight selling race half an hour before post time.

All of the horses entered for a handicap will be sent out in the entries and be shown on the program as possible starters. As it frequently happens that there are twenty or more entered for a handicap, not more than half of which can be depended upon as starters, the new system is not apt to be popular with the public. Under the old rule of posting scratches as soon as they are made no objections could have been found, but under the system that prevails at present of withholding all scratches until within a few minutes of post time there will be no end of confusion.

All overnight races, of whatever character, will be on the same basis so far as declarations are concerned. Horsemen will no longer be able to find out the handicapper's opinion of one of their horses for the trivial fee of $5, a ruse that has been resorted to often in the past. Stay-at-home bettors will have to cut the handicaps entirely out of their calculations or hedge their commissions with no end of instructions, and the new scheme should be effective in the fight against poolrooms.

SHOOTING IN PIMLICO GRANDSTAND.

Baltimore, Md., April 26.—Just as the horses were at the post in the last race at Pimlico today a pistol shot rang out in the center of the crowded grandstand and for a moment all was confusion and excitement. The Pinkertons and local police rushed in when matters were quieted down and it was found that William Dunn, a betting commissioner, had been shot in the arm by a woman from Buffalo, who is known as Mrs. King. It is claimed that her infatuation for Dunn led to the shooting. The woman was committed for the action by the local magistrate and Dunn was carried off to the hospital.

WOOL SANDALS WORKS AT LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Ky., April 26.—The only workout of consequence today at Churchill Downs was six furlongs by Wool Sandals in 1:22 over a heavy course. Next Monday Wool Sandals will be sent for a mile, on Wednesday for a mile and a quarter. A shift in jockeys for the Kentucky Derby puts D. Boland on Zal, Henderson, who rode for David Gideon, may pilot Holdfast. A big crowd will go to Lexington tomorrow by special train.

WILL BUILD A WINDBREAK.

New York, April 26.—One of the directors of the Queens County Jockey Club said today at Jamaica that all records for attendance at Aqueduct were broken at the meeting that closed yesterday. He said further that to further popularize the track, a high stone wall will probably be built just outside the paddock to keep off those chilly blasts from Jamaica Bay.

WHEN STEEPLECHASE JOCKEYS FALL.

Some Advise That It Is Best to Lie Still, Others Say Make Away.

"Steeplechase jockeys must have many exciting moments in their lives," says a writer in Fry's Magazine for April. "How would you like your horse to fall with you when you are almost at the head of your field, and there are horses galore following immediately behind? Would you lie where you fell, or would you try to roll to a place of safety? I have asked many jockeys. 'Lie still, and no horse will jump on you; they are as clever as cats,' emphatically advise some. 'Get out of the light as fast as you can,' say others. As a matter of fact, a jockey is usually too dazed at the instant to know quite what he ought to do, or what he does do. It is certainly true that a horse, if he can possibly help it, will not tread on a fallen horse or man; and some of the methods they employ to avoid doing so when it seems inevitable prove a lightning brain and electric resource. The commonest thing they do is to jump over the prostrate forms, keeping their heels close to their bodies. A jockey told me that once a brother jockey fell immediately in front and his own horse appeared to be in the act of landing on his chest, when he felt his mount, while in mid-air, make an additional spring, and he landed clear. Many jockeys have got kicked in their endeavors to rise.

"W. Taylor's account of how he lay on the ground after John M. P. had fallen with him in the Grand National at Liverpool last year, and, as it seemed to him, dozens on dozens, and scores and scores, and hundreds on hundreds of horses passed over his head, was dramatic and illustrative: 'Their hoofs listened and shone like snowballs. The bright steel of the shoes swept over me like a storm.' I am not a steeplechase jockey, nor any other kind of a jockey, but I have been in several somewhat scarefying runaways. My last was down a hill.

The buggy turned completely over in a decline in the road and threw me with my head within an inch of a stout tree. The horse turned sharp round and as I lay there with the ruins of the buggy about me and the horse entangled in the mess trying to get away, I remember thinking 'Will this beast kick my brains out?' As Taylor says, I fancied I could see heels in all directions, but the frightened, fractious brute, finding he could not get free, right about faced again, dashed through the trees, shook off the harness and remnants that were trammeling him, made a short circuit and gained the road to the stable, which laid south from where the disaster occurred. Of course I was a bit unstrung with a dislocated shoulder, a broken ligament to a finger and a hole in my side, but everything that passed I recognized, including the horse's hoofs that played over and around my head, as plainly as if I had been calmly and carelessly looking at a moving picture."

CHARLEY THOMPSON'S QUEER CASE.

Fred Forsythe was astounded when the Aqueduct stewards ordered him to scratch Charley Thompson from the third race Wednesday on the ground that the Jockey Club knew of no such horse officially.
"It's funny," said Mr. Forsythe, after he had withdrawn the Appomattox gelding, "that Charley is not known to the Jockey Club. His name is given among the produce of his dam, Forget-Me-Not II., in Volume 8 of the American Stud Book. He is eight years old, he has raced all over the west and he has won twenty-four times."

The action of the Aqueduct stewards was in no sense a reflection on Mr. Forsythe, or upon any one connected with Charley Thompson. The Appomattox gelding simply had not been registered, as the Rules of Racing require. Mr. Forsythe will immediately register him, and it is possible that he may win a race or two in the east before he dies.

 Winner—Gr. g. by Piccolo—Leora (trained by T. Cryser).
 Went to post at 2:12. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. Paddy Lynch ran into the lead on the outside and won all the way but finished driving and was lucky to win. St. Denis broke slowly on the inside and moved up rapidly, challenged vigorously in the stretch but could not quite get up and was best. Joe Goss, always well up, gamely earned third place. Water Thrush, away hatfaced, had a rough journey and was repeatedly pulled up. Dick Wilson, away badly, steadily improved his position into a fast going fifth. Speaker Fontana failed to stay after running prominently to the stretch. Saka Ray, shuffled to the rear at the start, was gaining in the stretch. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
 Scratched—68199 Royal White, 126.

 Winner—Ch. g. by Housatonic Jr.—Orinoca (trained by E. C. Getchell).
 Went to post at 2:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Aaron J. broke quickly and took a good forward position, ran around on the outside on the turns and swerving to the inside in the stretch crowded the leaders and won out luckily. Jack Kercheville, away poorly, overhauled the leaders and loomed up like the winner in the stretch but tired finally. Masedo maintained close and persistent pursuit of Titus II. and tired eventually. Yellowstone came fast from the rear and finished going fastest of all. Titus II. made the running very easily to the last sixteenth, where he suddenly quit. Cerro Santa, shuffled to the rear on the turn, went very wide and was coming with a belated end rush. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
 Scratched—(67970) Money Mules, 126; (68162) Sheen, 119; 68288 Peggy O'Neal, 124.

The Missourian, shuffled to the rear on the first turn, closed up much ground into an easy third. Nigrette ran forwardly for seven furlongs, then quit and is in bad form. Ismailian, knocked to the rear at the start, closed an immense gap in an extra good effort. Fellow Me ran poorly. Ten Oaks was never dangerous.  Winner—Ch. m. by Handsel—Elzarr (trained by F. D. Weir).
 Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Handzarra got off flying and made the pace fast all the way but was tiring at the end and just lasted long enough. Voorhees was always in close pursuit of the winner, was wearing her down at the end, would have won in another stride or two and is in fine form. Pretension ran a fast game race but was unable to concede the weight. Waterbury ran surprisingly well and was a close up fourth. Inquisitor was never conspicuous and palpably short but was not far away at the end.
 Scratched—(68185) Oraculum, 100; 68340 Cressina, 110.
 Overweights—Avaunteer, 1 pound.

68397 FOURTH RACE—1-1-4 Miles. (1:45-4-105.) Excelsior Handicap. Value $10,000. 3-year-olds and upward. Net value to winner $7,350.

 Winner—B. c. by Bannockburn—Uarda (trained by F. D. Weir).
 Went to post at 3:55. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second easily; third driving. Dr. Gardner from an extreme outside position dashed into the lead with a great burst of speed and escaping the bumping and crowding that marred the race and under a skillful ride maintained his advantage to win with considerable spare. Glorifier was a good horse today and after being knocked back early closed a big gap and finished fast and gamely. Cair
